Hope Of Saving Alameda.

San Francisco, Cal., Oct. 4.—There is still a chance that the steamer Alameda may be saved. The wreckers are at work night and day.

San Francisco, Cal. Oct. 7.—The Alameda has been floated. The damage done to the hull is not great. The Alameda was surrendered to the underwriters and is now their property. If the Oceanic Company wants the vessel they must buy her.

[The S. S. Alameda struck on a rock fifty feet from Fort Point while leaving the harbor on Saturday, Sept. 30th. The Rio de Janeiro was lost about the same spot on February 22, 1901. The pilot C. B. Johnson was on the bridge besides Captain Dowdell. Signals of distress were sounded and the passengers were taken ashore without accident, but not until they had partaken of luncheon aboard the stranded vessel. It appears that the rock punctured the hull, in the port bow and a steady stream of water was pouring into her side. There is about a six foot tide at this point and it is hoped at high tide to float her, provided the hole in her bottom is not too extensive. Nearly all of the cargo had been saved at last accounts. The report that the Santa Barbara would take the Alameda's place is unfounded as that vessel has gone ashore at Mendocino. It is probable that the old S. S. Zealandia, will be put on the Alameda run.]

A New Whistling Buoy.

In response to the complaints which have gone to Honolulu about the hoarseness of the whistling buoy marking the entrance to Hilo harbor, Capt. A. P. Niblack has ordered the old buoy removed and a new whistler substituted. In the performance of this task the white steamer Luhua, which has been seen in the harbor for the past week, has been sent to Hilo. Captain McAllister, in charge of the vessel, reports that this work has been fully accomplished, and he took back to Honolulu yesterday afternoon the old floater to have its throat treated. The Luhua was formerly in the Wilder steamship service, but was purchased recently by Capt. Frederick Miller, who formerly was on the Enterprise.
The vessel has been entirely renovated, and has the appearance of a yacht inside and out. Captain Miller undertook the contract of overhauling all government buoys in the islands. Mr. E. N. Shaw of the Light House service superintended the work, which was accomplished without difficulty.

No Cruel Treatment of Lepers.

The Health Committee of the Board of Supervisors sat all Thursday afternoon listening the charges of Rev. Edward Kekoa regarding the ill treatment of his daughter as a leper suspect by the agents of the Board of Health and also heard what other witnesses had to say. The committee, which consists of Supervisors Shipman, Moir and Desha sat in the Board rooms and gave a full hearing to all who desired to appear and testify. The testimony of Rev. Edward Kekoa, Mrs. Kekoa, Mrs.
Rowland, Ben H. Brown, E. Namohala, D. S. Bowman, R. T. Guard and Hoomana, was taken down in shorthand and will be transcribed by the committee perhaps at a later date.

The complaint of Kekoa was that Agent D. S. Bowman of the Board of Health had dragged his daughter, a young Hawaiian girl, seventeen years of age, from the house tearing her clothes, while Captain W. A.
Fetter forcibly held Kekoa. In his testimony on the stand, the stalwart figure of the old man in his grief quivered with emotion in the telling of the sad tale. Like the Roman centurion Virginius of old he declared he would prefer to see his daughter dead than consigned to such an ignominious life. He could hardly restrain himself in relating the circumstances of his daughter's arrest and alleged abduction.

He admitted that he had had nearly a month's notice of the purpose of the health authorities to take the girl to Honolulu for examination, but denied the right of the police to arrest his child, claiming the law was unconstitutional. Other witnesses who were present at the arrest of the girl, told how the father had brandished a hatchet, when he was disarmed. Subsequently he attacked the officers with a knife, but in the meantime, Bowman had put the girl into a hack and driven her to the detention camp at Waiakea. All the evidence was corroborative of this fact, and a married sister of the unfortunate young woman testified that she saw no ill treatment of the girl and was shown every consideration by the officers when she went to say good bye. It developed that the complaints had been started primarily to injure the republican party, whom it was alleged were behind the police officials. The committee reported a complete vindication of Dr. Stow and Agent Bowman, whom the committee state simply did their duty in a very humane and courteous manner as borne out by the statements of eye witnesses. The report is signed by Supervisors O. T. Shipman, chairman, S. L. Desha and John T. Moir, committee.

Hiawatha an Artistic Production.

Longfellow's poem of Hiawatha, adapted as a musical melodrama by the late Mrs. Saidee Knowland Coe was presented for the first time to a Hilo audience under the auspices of the King's Daughters. As Miss Frank Potter read the beautiful lines of the great poet, detailing the romance of Hiawatha's love for Minnehaha, the Arrowmaker's daughter, his early childhood, his wooing and capture of the Indian maiden's heart, followed by the subsequent famine and death of his bride, Miss Caroline Potter played an exquisite accompaniment of weird Indian music and chants characteristic to those people. At intervals there were tableaux vivants under the direction of Mrs. Milton Rice, which were perfect as to detail and environment. Owing to the failure at the last moment of one of the cast Mrs. H. L. Shaw portrayed the character of the Arrowmaker. Henry J. Lyman as Hiawatha made a stalwart brave of muscular proportions. Miss Harriet Hapal, as Minnehaha or "Laughing Waters" presented a picture of maidenly modesty and Indian beauty.
Miss West took the part of Nokomis, the mother, and Thornton Lyman represented Hiawatha in his youth. While the attendance was not large, the affair was an artistic exhibition, musically and otherwise.

Board Refuses To Appoint Gere.

At Friday's session of the board of Supervisors, the Committee on Internal Improvements brought in a report, among other things referring back the application of G. H. Gere for appointment as county road engineer, for consideration by the entire board. Gere's application set forth that if the County would pay for the care of his team and traveling expenses and one-half of his salary, which amounted to $100 per month, that the Public Works Department would pay the other half.

The Board resolved itself into a committee of the whole to consider the proposition, and much to the surprise of Gere and his friends, there was almost an unanimity of opinion against the proposed arrangement.
Chairman Moir moved that Mr. Gere be appointed county engineer at a salary of $100 per month and the care of his team when in Hilo. "I have known Mr. Gere ever since he came up here, and have had considerable to do with him in road work. I have always found him right up to date, competent and capable of fulfilling his duties. He works with a good deal of vim, not in a slow and lazy manner but in first class order. I think this $100 a month would be well spent by the County, and Engineer Gere would save his salary to the County every month."

Supervisor Desha spoke against the resolution, explaining that the conditions in this county were different from the other islands. "On Kauai and Maui, the road engineers have charge of road lunas, and they have no road supervisors. I am in favor of Gere's appointment, but I fear there will be friction with the various road supervisors whom we have appointed."

Supervisor Shipman said he was a personal friend of Engineer Gere and would like to secure his services for the county, but disregarding all personal feelings in the matter he did not feel that the county could afford it at this time. Kalaiwaa suggested that the county employ Mr.
Gere at so much per day, when they needed his services. On putting the motion, it was lost by a vote of 5 to 1, Moir voting in the affirmative.
Woods was absent.

Russia Agrees to Exchange.

St. Petersburg, Russia, Oct. 4.—Russia has agreed to the Japanese proposition for the exchange of prisoners. Under this plan the 1,866 Japanese held by the Russians will be delivered on the western frontier of Russia, and 64,000 Russian prisoners will be delivered at Kobe, Nagasaki and Yokohama whence they will be conveyed to Vladivostok.

More Troops for Hawaii.

Washington, Oct. 4.—President Roosevelt has decided to increase the military garrison in Hawaii by sending to Honolulu the two companies of infantry which have been on duty at the Portland Expedition.
